WELCOME TO THE SACCONI CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL FOLKESTONE 2018!

The Folkestone Art Triennial was a huge success last year, and left behind a further selection of permanent artworks in addition to the existing ones already dotted across the town's landscape. It therefore makes sense that the Sacconi Festival continues to bring its musical sculpture to Folkestone each year: a perfectly crafted series of concerts, fashioned from a solid base of pure talent, with a finish of great artistry and a patina of knowledge and experience!

This year the brilliant London Bridge Trio join the Sacconis in Schoenberg's 'Verklarte Nacht', South African cellist Abel Selacoe and his band Chesaba bring the sounds of his home nation to the Quarterhouse with an eclectic mix of instruments and vocals, and we feature composer Graham Fitkin in our extended Friday concert. Plus, eminent cellist Moray Welsh will help round off the Festival with Schubert's String Quintet in C major. Enjoy!

SCHOENBERG
BRAHMS

PIANO TRIO IN E FLAT MAJOR, OP. 1, NO. 1
STRING SEXTET 'VERKLÄRTE NACHT', OP. 4
PIANO QUINTET IN F MINOR, OP. 34

We take a trip to Vienna through the ages for this evening concert, where the streets resonate with the music of these three great composers. The London Bridge Trio start with a young Beethoven's example of Classical elegance. The Sacconis then join as we take a moonlit stroll with Schoenberg's Late Romantic tale of betrayal and forgiveness. We finish with one of the greats of the Romantic period, Brahms and his dramatic piano quintet.

CONCERT

SATURDAY 19TH MAY 9:30PM £16
Quarterhouse, Folkestone

Chesaba:

Abel Selaocoe Cello

Ali Mcmath Double Bass

Sidiki Dembele Drums and Kora

Chesaba, an electrifying African trio, play music from the Ivory Coast to South Africa using sounds created from an eclectic blend of cello, kora, n'goni (African percussion), double bass and voice accompanied by the languages of Bambara, Zulu, Sotho, Tswana and more. You can expect improvisations influenced by African, Jazz and Classical Music.
